

AEROSPACE

UNLOCKING POTENTIAL

£20m programme budget
ERDF (European funding) addressing LEP priorities
2020-2022/3

Lead partner: University of Nottingham Institute of Aerospace Technology
Delivery partner: Midlands Aerospace Alliance

Geographical Coverage & Eligibility

To qualify for funded support, businesses must:

- Operate in one of the following eight LEP areas
 - Black Country
 - Coventry and Warwickshire
 - Greater Birmingham and Solihull
 - Stoke and Staffordshire
 - D2N2
 - SEMLEP
 - Greater Lincolnshire
 - Leicester and Leicestershire
- Be an SME based in, or looking to diversify into the Aerospace Supply Chain sector
- Activity needs to have a focus on innovation/research – shouldn't be aimed at day to day business operations

Funded innovation support for the aerospace supply chain:

- Workshops and dissemination events
become part of an innovation eco-system
- Student and graduate support opportunities benefit from internships and industrial placements
- Technical support projects
receive technical support from the University's Precision Manufacturing Centre
- Grant funding for R&D projects
develop new technologies, processes and products